

Thank you, America!

Thank you to all those who have made America and are continuing to make it the best it can be, those who do the right thing, lead thoughtfully and with integrity even when it goes counter to their immediate career or political benefits. To you, especially, we are profoundly grateful.

Your immigrants.

Our gratitude is not where it ends.
We are coming together to pay it forward.

To immigrants' eyes, to a significant part of 7 billion people, America is where every person has the liberty to live true, strong, and free; where individual skills and merit shape an individual's achievements, not the will of a small group that is in power. It's a nation whose best and brightest fought to free the world from slavery, upheld the rule of law for everyone regardless of their status, led the world in the fight against racism and xenophobia, played a leading role in winning WWII, rid the world of communism, and continue to empower wealth creation among all people. Our team is coming together to unite immigrants in their contributions to America and their efforts to ensure America continues to be the best it can be for every American, now and in the future.
